What Constitutes Ragging:

Ragging constitutes one or more of any of the following acts as listed in the UGC Regulations, 2009:

- any conduct by any student or students whether by words spoken or written or by an act which has the effect of teasing, treating or handling with rudeness a fresher or any other student;
- indulging in rowdy or indisciplined activities by any student or students which causes or is likely to cause annoyance, hardship, physical or psychological harm or to raise fear or apprehension thereof in any fresher or any other student;
- asking any student to do any act which such student will not in the ordinary course do and which has the effect of causing or generating a sense of shame, or torment or embarrassment so as to adversely affect the physique or psyche of such fresher or any other student
- any act by a senior student that prevents, disrupts or disturbs the regular academic activity of any other student or a fresher;
- exploiting the services of a fresher or any other student for completing the academic tasks assigned to an individual or a group of students.
- any act of financial extortion or forceful expenditure burden put on a fresher or any other student by students;
- any act of physical abuse including all variants of it: sexual abuse, homosexual assaults, stripping, forcing obscene and lewd acts, gestures, causing bodily harm or any other danger to health or person;
- any act or abuse by spoken words, emails, post, public insults which would also include deriving perverted pleasure, vicarious or sadistic thrill from actively or passively participating in the discomfiture to fresher or any other student;
- any act that affects the mental health and self-confidence of a fresher or any other student with or without an intent to derive a sadistic pleasure or showing off power, authority or superiority by a student over any fresher or any other student.

Measures Taken by The LNMIIT Jaipur administration:

- Educating / updating the students enrolled in various programmes in the beginning of each academic session that there is zero tolerance for ragging and the University takes a very serious view of ragging in any form and is committed to creating conditions that prevent perpetration of any act of ragging and to take strict and prompt action against the delinquent student found abetting / involved in any act of ragging.
- Appropriately / adequately sensitizing and counseling the students not to indulge in any act of ragging and to apprise them of the consequences which they may have to face, if found involved in any such act.
- Strictly enforcing the relevant provisions of the UGC Regulations on Curbing the Menace of Ragging in Higher Educational Institutions, 2009, and disseminating the details of the above said regulation to the students enrolled.
